

Beds

Kiru

It is a simple and modern wooden bed. Its design creates an interplay of lines that seek and repel each other, proposed in the faceted headboard, with a continuation of the vein sense, and repeated in the meeting space between the bed frame and legs.

SIMPLE WOODEN BED

Kiru is a wooden double bed with a simple but not banal design. In fact, its headboard is characterised by a diamond-worked facet that echoes the traditional taste of woodworking. And it does so with Dall'Agnese's own care: the faceting always maintains the continuity of the wood grain, even on the diagonal, and creates a trend that picks up on the sloping line of the meeting between the bed frame and solid wood feet. Also available in a version with a storage base.
