Green

The Green coplanar or sliding door is composed of three overlapping panels, of different sizes, and has the handle integrated into the outer profile of the lower part. The latter can be chosen in wood essence or matte lacquer, in continuity or contrast with the door.

GREEN DOOR IN THREE PANELS

Complanar or sliding, the Green door makes its never mundane simplicity a stylistic hallmark. It is composed of three panels of different sizes that offer movement to its essentiality, to be emphasized at will with the integrated handle. In the picture, for example, the closet in white matt lacquer has a handle in heat-treated oak essence.
