Telaio

Telaio is a closet with a sliding door, characterized by its aluminum frame that seems to embrace the structure and also acts as a handle. The door in two versions is available in wood essences, all lacquers, lacquered glass or mirror.

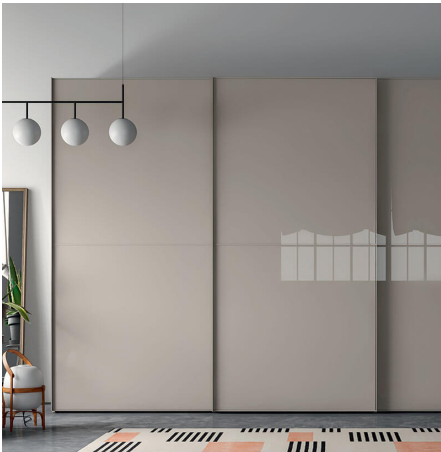

TELAIO 0 DOOR

The closet with 0-Frame is composed of a door consisting of a single panel. In the pictures, the effect is visually light and bright because it is a closet with white glass doors that reflect ambient light. The frame is in dark grey matt lacquer.

TELAIO A DOOR

The closet with Frame A consists of a door made of two overlapping panels. In the images, again a closet with sliding glass doors, in this case lacquered light sand, and aluminum frame lacquered matt silk grey.
