

Mirrors

Nebula

It is an elegant table mirror, which can be placed on consoles, tall units and desks to transform them into vanity units. Its elongated semi-oval shape is perfectly clean, with polished edge grinding and a rear storage element.

TABLE MIRROR

The Nebula free-standing mirror is cut with a polished edge and a bevelled edge. All the prominence is left to the mirror, which conceals, at the back, a storage element that doubles as a support base. This can be requested in the matt lacquer finishes of the Dall'Agnese range. In the pictures, with its presence Nebula transforms the wooden and eco-leather Settanta writing desk into a vanity unit and a modern piece of furniture in wood, hard leather and metal such as the Supernova writing desk.

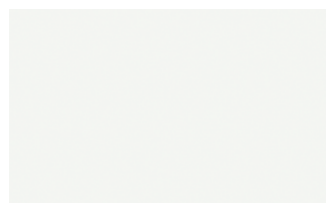

FINISHES

The Nebula mirror is supported by a container back element. Which colour do you prefer for its finish? Discover availability.
